SECOND MOTION TO RECONSIDER DETENTION ORDER AND REOPEN THE DETENTION HEARING AND INCORPORATED MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Comes now the petitioner, Mohamed Omar, by and through his attorney Erik Herbert, and pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3142(F) and hereby moves this Court to reconsider its Order of Detention entered March 15, 2011 and subsequent denial of the defendant's first Motion to Reconsider on February 3, 2012. There are numerous factual circumstances and material changes regarding the proof in this case that have occurred since this Court last reviewed Mr. Omar's detention status which provide justification for this Court to grant a de novo hearing on this motion. The defendant will show that continued incarceration is improper under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)(2) in that that there is not any proof to be offered at the trial in this matter that the defendant sexually trafficked a minor. As grounds:

- 1) The Government's witnesses against the defendant as promised have either chosen not to testify, are not credible, or have recanted their previous testimony and there simply does not exist any credible proof that the defendant was engaged in any sex trafficking.
- 2) The defendant's alleged co-conspirators to sexually traffic Jane Doe One, Abdifatah Jama and Fadumo Farah, have had their sex trafficking cases either dismissed outright by the government or have been found not guilty by a jury.
